State of Connecticut Provisions Governing Contractual Relationships with Quasi-State Agencies

1. PENALTY FOR FALSE STATEMENT (C.G.S. §1-126)

Any quasi-public agency, as defined in Section 1-120 of the General Statutes, shall require any application, agreement, financial statement, certificate or other writing submitted to such quasi-public agency with respect to any loan, mortgage, guarantee, investment, grant, lease, tax relief, bond financing or other extension of credit or financial assistance made or provided by such quasi-public agency and that provides information on which the decision of such quasi-public agency was based, to be signed under penalty of false statement as provided in Section 53a-157b of the General Statutes. This application must be signed under penalty of false statement.

2. STATE CONTRACTING NONDISCRIMINATION REQUIREMENTS

Connecticut General Statutes Sections 4a-60 and 4a-60a require an entity or individual entering into a contract with the State or certain political subdivisions of the State, including quasi-public agencies, to provide the contracting agency with a written affidavit or other acceptable documentation that certifies the contractor's compliance with certain nondiscrimination requirements. Each applicant must submit a nondiscrimination certificate with the application. The Loan Agreement that will be entered into by the Authority and each Borrower must include the nondiscrimination provisions set forth in Connecticut General Statutes Sections 4a-60 and 4a-60a.

3. SEEC NOTICE.

The Loan Agreement constitutes a "State Contract" as defined in Connecticut General Statutes Section 9-612(f)(1). An authorized official must sign the State Elections Enforcement Commission's notice advising state contractors of state campaign contribution and solicitation prohibitions and will inform its principals of the contents of the notice. CHEFA is required to provide all prospective State contractors with a copy of the Notice to Executive Branch state Contractors and Prospective State Contractors of Campaign Contribution and Solicitation Limitations which has been included as Exhibit A. Please complete and sign Exhibit A.

4. FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT

CHEFA is a "public agency" for purposes of the Connecticut Freedom of Information Act ("FOIA"). An application submitted in connection with this loan program, and any files or documents associated with the application, including e-mails or other electronic files, will be public records and subject to disclosure under the FOIA. See C.G.S. §§1-200, et seq. The FOIA includes exemptions for, among other things, "trade secrets" and "commercial or financial information given in confidence, not required by statute." See C.G.S. §1-210(b). Due regard will be given for the protection of proprietary or confidential information contained in applications received. However, all materials associated with the application are subject to the terms of the FOIA and all applicable rules, regulations and administrative decisions. If an applicant is interested in preserving the confidentiality of any part of their application, it will not be sufficient to state generally in the application that the application is proprietary or confidential in nature and therefore not subject to release to third parties. Instead, those particular sentences, paragraphs, pages or sections that an applicant believes to be exempt from disclosure under the FOIA must be specifically identified as such. Convincing explanation and rationale sufficient to justify each exemption consistent with §1-210(b) of the FOIA must accompany the application. The rationale and explanation must be stated in terms of the reasons the materials are legally exempt from release pursuant to the FOIA. Confidential information must be labeled CONFIDENTIAL and submitted in a separate PDF.

All application materials not placed in a separate PDF clearly marked as confidential will not be treated as confidential and will be made available for public view upon receipt of a FOIA request. Applicants should not request that their entire application, nor the majority of the application, be confidential and CHEFA reserves the right to reject any such application. CHEFA has no obligation to initiate, prosecute or defend any legal proceeding or to seek a protective order or other similar relief to prevent disclosure of any information that is sought pursuant to a FOIA request. The applicant has the burden of establishing the availability of any FOIA exemption in any proceeding where it is an issue. In no event shall the CHEFA or any of its officers, directors or employees have any liability for the disclosure of documents or information in the CHEFA's possession where CHEFA, or any of its officers, directors or employees believe disclosure is required under the FOIA or other law.

No state contractor, prospective state contractor, principal of a state contractor or principal of a prospective state contractor, with regard to a state contract or state contract solicitation with or from a state agency in the executive branch or a quasi-public agency or a holder, or principal of a holder, of a valid prequalification certificate, shall make a contribution to (i) an exploratory committee or candidate committee established by a candidate for nomination or election to the office of Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Attorney General, State Comptroller, Secretary of the State or State Treasurer, (ii) a political committee authorized to make contributions or expenditures to or for the benefit of such candidates, or (iii) a party committee (which includes town committees).

In addition, no holder or principal of a holder of a valid prequalification certificate shall make a contribution to (i) an exploratory committee or candidate committee established by a candidate for nomination or election to the office of state senator or state representative, (ii) a political committee authorized to make contributions or expenditures to or for the benefit of such candidates, or (iii) a party committee.

On and after January 1, 2011, no state contractor, prospective state contractor, principal of a state contractor or principal of a prospective state contractor, with regard to a state contract or state contract solicitation with or from a state agency in the executive branch or a quasi-public agency or a holder, or principal of a holder of a valid prequalification certificate, shall knowingly solicit contributions from the state contractor's or prospective state contractor's employees or from a subcontractor or principals of the subcontractor on behalf of (i) an exploratory committee or candidate committee established by a candidate for nomination or election to the office of Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Attorney General, State Comptroller, Secretary of the State or State Treasurer, (ii) a political committee authorized to make contributions or expenditures to or for the benefit of such candidates, or (iii) a party committee.

DUTY TO INFORM

State contractors and prospective state contractors are required to inform their principals of the above prohibitions, as applicable, and the possible penalties and other consequences of any violation thereof.

PENALTIES FOR VIOLATIONS

Contributions or solicitations of contributions made in violation of the above prohibitions may result in the following civil and criminal penalties:

Civil penalties—Up to $2,000 or twice the amount of the prohibited contribution, whichever is greater, against a principal or a contractor. Any state contractor or prospective state contractor which fails to make reasonable efforts to comply with the provisions requiring notice to its principals of these prohibitions and the possible consequences of their violations may also be subject to civil penalties of up to $2,000 or twice the amount of the prohibited contributions made by their principals.

Criminal penalties—Any knowing and willful violation of the prohibition is a Class D felony, which may subject the violator to imprisonment of not more than 5 years, or not more than $5,000 in fines, or both.

CONTRACT CONSEQUENCES

In the case of a state contractor, contributions made or solicited in violation of the above prohibitions may result in the contract being voided.

In the case of a prospective state contractor, contributions made or solicited in violation of the above prohibitions shall result in the contract described in the state contract solicitation not being awarded to the prospective state contractor, unless the State Elections Enforcement Commission determines that mitigating circumstances exist concerning such violation.

The State shall not award any other state contract to anyone found in violation of the above prohibitions for a period of one year after the election for which such contribution is made or solicited, unless the State Elections Enforcement Commission determines that mitigating circumstances exist concerning such violation.
